Mr Justice Blackburn rules against the Yirrkala people in their case against Nabalco and the Commonwealth of Australia. The Yolngu people are shocked and angered at this outcome.

GROUP WEBSITE ACTIVITY: Lake Tyers

Lake Tyers was one of the last two Aboriginal reserves in Victoria. Public pressure forced the Victorian Government to face the issue: what was to be done with the ownership of Lake Tyers?

Use the specific website documents indicated to prepare your group report to the class on this incident, and add your annotations to the timeline display.

FOCUS

1. Use an atlas to locate Lake Tyers, and mark it on the map of Australia.

2. Look at the report on conditions at Lake Tyers. Summarise what it tells you about:
   - housing
   - health
   - work
   - community
   - education
   at Lake Tyers.

3. In 1962 a decision had to be made whether to send people elsewhere and close Lake Tyers as an Aboriginal settlement. From the information you have so far, what would you recommend? Prepare an argument for closing it, and one for continuing it. Which case do you think is the stronger one?

4. Now look at the arguments for and against as they were presented at the time. Have you changed your decision?

The Aboriginal Tent Embassy.
Aboriginal activists outraged by Prime Minister William McMahon’s refusal to acknowledge an Indigenous right to land set up their beach umbrella and hang from it a sign: ‘Aboriginal Embassy’. The protest grows. Footage shown from it a sign: ‘Aboriginal Embassy’.

The protest grows. The protesters called their tent an ‘embassy’. Discuss the meaning and implications of this word in the context of the place and time.

The National Aboriginal Consultative Committee (NACC) is established. The NACC is set up as a move towards Aboriginal representation. People over 18 who class themselves as Aboriginal, and are recognised as such by their community, are eligible to vote. Its role is only advisory.

Aboriginal Land Rights Commission established. The Aboriginal Land Rights Commission, headed by Justice Woodward, is set up by the government of Gough Whitlam to establish ways for Aboriginal people to get land rights in the Northern Territory. As a result of its recommendations the Northern Land and the Central Land councils are established.

GROUP WEBSITE ACTIVITY: Aboriginal Embassy

On 25 January 1972 Prime Minister William McMahon announced that the Government would not support Aboriginal land rights as a principle.

On the following day some Aboriginal people set up an ‘embassy’ on the lawns outside the front entrance to Parliament House in Canberra.

Use the specific website documents indicated to prepare your group report to the class on this incident, and add your annotations to the timeline display.

FOCUS

1. Mark the location of the Aboriginal Embassy on the map of Australia.
2. The protesters called their tent an ‘embassy’. Discuss the meaning and implications of this word in the context of the place and time.
3. Read the article The Aboriginal Embassy and summarise the information on:
   - what the Embassy was
   - why it was set up
   - why it was set up by that group at that time
   - its aims
   - the significance of this event.

4. The Government attempted to close the Embassy. Describe what happened with this attempt.
5. The website contains a collection of photographs of the events. Look at them and create a caption for each that summarises its main point, emphasis or message. If you had to choose one photo to illustrate an article on the Embassy, which would you choose? Justify your choice.
6. The Aboriginal Embassy still exists. Since 1972 it has attracted critics as well as supporters. Go to the website below and use the information to create a summary of the main arguments for and against its continuing existence. Do you support the continued existence of the Aboriginal Embassy? Justify your point of view.
